

Calendar of Events February 2011 – July 2011

Wednesday, February 2, 3:00- 4:00 pm, 2-580 Moos Tower	Weston Porter, Ph.D. Texas A&M University	"Where do I want to be when I grow up? Comparison of research careers at large state and medical schools"
Monday, March 21, 2:00-4:00 pm, 2-530 Moos Tower	Jeanine Ferguson, Ph.D. University of Minnesota, Twin Cities	"Successful proposal writing for graduate students"
Wednesday, May 4, departing from East Bank Campus at 10:30 am. RSVP by April 29.	"A Site Visit to R&D Systems"	"Are you interested in pursuing a job in science- based industry? Are you interested in the types of jobs available, and how industry works? Have you ever thought of working for R&D systems?"
Monday, June 6, 3:30-5:00 pm, MTRF 1-110	Kris Hogquist, Ph.D., Principle Investigator Sara Hamilton, Ph.D., Assistant Scientist Janelle Olson, Ph.D., Postdoctoral Researcher Rachel Kahler, Ph.D., Patent Agent	Curious about what it's like to be a women in a professional scientific career? Do you have questions about how to balance work and family? Panel discussion about: "Women in Science"
Thursday, June 30, 12:00-1:00, 450 MCRB	Bill Phelps, Ph.D., Program Director, American Cancer Society	"Perspectives on Cancer Research from a Career Path in Academic, Government, Industry and a Private Foundation" and "How the ACS supports Cancer Research"
Wednesday, July 20 12:00-1:00 5-125 Moos Tower	Vincent Racaniello, Ph.D. Higgins Professor Columbia University	"How and why has a busy research-intensive professor found the time to establish 2 popular podcasts and play a significant role in writing a popular virology textbook?"